NEW BUILDING IN '62 DROPS TO $532,147

New construction in Gettysburg, according to the permits issued by the borough, dropped to the lowest point in years during 1962. There was much work going on including completion of the new high school renovation of the former Deatrick building on Baltimore St. into a colonial structure and others involving completion of work started in 1961.

The only major work commenced in 1962 was the $203,784 remodeling, which eventually became the razing and reconstruction, of the Presbyterian Church, the construction of one $50,000 museum on Steinwehr Ave., construction of a $30,000 service station, construction of six homes at a cost of $91,500 and construction of a barn at the Jennie Wade House for $10,500.

134 PERMITS ISSUED

All of the other work for which permits were issued during the year were repairs and renovations to existing structures plus a few additions, to present buildings and construction of a few scattered small garages and sheds.

The records show 134 permits granted during the year for construction worth $532,147.

That half million dollars worth of work compares to construction valued at $3,344,402 in 1961; $1,351,710 in 1960; $1,766,521 in 1959, and $2,454,958 in 1958.

NO NEW MOTELS

In each of the prior years there was major construction underway among the schools. In 1961 $1,189,990 represented the new high school, $1,193,765 represented construction at the college. The two institutions plus regular building in the town provided the borough with its biggest year for planned construction in history in 1961.

Judging by the permits, the day of motel building in Gettysburg has ended for the present. There were no permits issued for motel construction during the year.

The six homes, only five buildings for one is a duplex, for which permits were issued in 1962 compare to five permits for homes in 1961, 10 in 1960, 23 in 1959, 24 in 1958.

16 DEMOLISHED

Permission was given for the demolition of 16 structures in the town during the year. Among buildings taken down were the farm implement shed to the rear of 223 Baltimore St. and the old (Continued On Page 3)

4 SLEDDERS ARE INJURED IN ACCIDENTS

E. Cemetery Hill, long a favorite sledding spot for the younger generation, has been the scene for a number of casualties in the last several days.

C. Arthur Brame III, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Arthur Brame Jr., 329 Baltimore St., was hurt Friday afternoon when his sled crashed against a post on the fence along Wainwright Ave. near the bottom of the hill. The youth was unable to get up after the crash and others at the scene went to the home of his parents. His mother drove him to the office of Dr. L. R. Radma, who in turn summoned the ambulance to move the youth to the Warner Hospital for X-rays in case he had suffered a chipped spine. Preliminary check of the X-rays did not disclose a chipped condition and he was removed to his home where he was in bed today "stiff and sore."

COASTER BADLY HURT

Thursday night Ray Mickley, 16, 20 Breckenridge St., suffered a badly cut chest and injuries to the collar bone when his sled smashed into the fence at the bottom of the hill.

Michael Pinko, 15, of S. Washington St., suffered a cut left wrist and head injuries in a similar accident Thursday on E. Cemetery Hill.

Numerous other local youths have suffered minor brushburns, cuts and injuries on the hill this season.

A patient at the Warner Hospital is Frederick Crist, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Crist, Fairfield R. 1, who suffered head injuries Christmas Day while sledding at his farm home. He reportedly was sledding in a field where a pony is kept and when the sled came close to the pony it apparently was frightened and kicked the child in the head.

The display at the home of William R. Swisher, 106 E. Middle St., was chosen Friday night as the best in the annual Gettysburg Home Christmas Decorations Contest held by the Chamber of Commerce.

Swisher will receive $75 from the Chamber for the exhibit which includes a Christmas window, a decorated porch, other lights and decorations about the house and a lawn that includes a fountain illuminated by colored lights, Christmas trees and Santa and reindeer. The window at the home was described by the judges as the "crowning touch" which secured the prize for Swisher. They termed the window "very beautiful."

The $50 second prize goes to Morris DeSimon, R. 2, for displays that include Santa Claus climbing from the roof, via a ladder, to the recessed front entrance to the house, where numerous other decorations are also shown.

OTHER WINNERS

Third prize, $40, will go to John D. Lawver, 280 Barlow St., where the religious theme predominates in the decorations. An illuminated "Holy Night" is across the top of the roof, the "Star of Bethlehem" adorns a TV antenna. On the lawn are a nativity scene and reindeer.

Fourth prize of $25 goes to the home of John F. Grider, 138 Ridge Ave., and the fifth prize of $10 will be awarded to Oscar Cullison, 37 Breckenridge St., whose display includes large nativity figures atop the porch roof, a choir and other displays on the house and on the lawn.

Letters will be sent the winners asking them to meet at a time and place to be decided later for the formal presentation ceremony.

Experts Predict 420 Will Die In Holiday Traffic

Thousands of merrymakers and other motorists enjoying 1962's last holiday weekend are expected to hit the nation's highways today, bringing an estimate from the National Safety Council that between 420 and 480 persons may become victims of the nation's No. 1 killer—traffic accidents.

The long four-day New Year's holiday, which began at 6 p.m. (local time) Friday, ends at midnight New Year's Day.

QUIET START

The 104-hour holiday began quietly, with only a handful of fatal accidents reported. But most persons were expected to be in the highways today, Sunday and New Year's Eve.

The latest count showed 15 dead in traffic accidents and 3 persons dead in miscellaneous accidents directly attributed to the holiday. No fire fatalities had been reported.

In making its pre-holiday estimate of 420 to 480 traffic fatalities the Safety Council said studies of past turn-of-the-year holidays show driving too fast for conditions is a factor in more than half the fatal accidents—compared with an annual average of 37 per cent.

The NSC also said that drink-driving drivers are involved in 38 per cent of New Year's weekend accidents, compared with an annual average of 30 per cent.

The council estimated that 18,000 to 21,000 persons could suffer disabling injuries during the period.

RECORD SET IN '57

The record death toll for a New Year's weekend was 409, established during a four-day holiday weekend in 1957. Last year, 337 persons were killed in traffic accidents during a three-day New Year's weekend.

The Associated Press tabulated 646 deaths in motor vehicle accidents during the four-day Christmas holiday last weekend.

An AP survey of fatalities in a four-day non-holiday weekend—from 6 p.m. Friday, Dec. 7, to midnight Tuesday, Dec. 11—tallied 371 deaths in traffic, 64 in fires and 76 in other accidents for a total of 511.

Inclement weather and hazardous highway conditions will be a large factor in the traffic toll. Rain and snow were forecast for many parts of the nation today.

Truck Damage To Sign Brings Suit

Dale Lawver, Gettysburg R. 6, trading as Dale's Tire Shop and Sue's Diner, Friday brought suit in Adams County court against a Charleston Heights, S. C., truck driver and trucking firm asking $655.63 in damages to a sign at Lawver's establishments along the Harrisburg Rd.

According to the complaint filed for Lawver by Attorney Oscar F. Spicer in the prothonotary's office, Cecil Walker Mack, Charleston Heights, S. C., was driving a truck owned by Hughes Motors, Inc., same address on August 13, when the vehicle left the highway and struck the sign owned by Lawver. The bill for repair of the sign, totaling $655.53, is attached to the complaint.

UNCLAIMED MONEY SENT TO ESCHEATS

Pennsylvania is $4,842.40 richer today because a number of Adams Countyans never claimed sums held for them by the various county offices.

County Clerk of Courts Clark Spence sent $2,432.35 to the state's Division of Escheats representing sums in 24 estates which were never claimed. One of the amounts, $15.13, dated back to 1887. Another, for $452, the largest single sum among the amounts in the estates, dated from 1935.

County Treasurer Daniel J. Wolff forwarded $470.10, representing amounts that the sheriffs over the years had turned in when they sold property for taxes and were unable to find the heirs or owners to give them the amounts left over after the sale.

The prothonotary's office sent $1,939.95, representing six separate accounts, some dating back to 1923. One of the sums was $1,000, representing a sales in bulk use tax amount held when a business was sold. Another represented payments made to the court by a husband when he sold property jointly owned by him and his estranged wife. The wife never claimed the amount.

All of the sums had been held at least seven years by the offices and were unclaimed.

Fire, attributed by firemen to an overheated pile of log wood, caused damage estimated at $400 at the Robert F. Burkee Grocery and Meat Market, 200 Main St., McSherrytown, Friday at 8:50 a.m. McSherrytown Fire Chief James Noel, who estimated the loss, said the damage is partly covered by insurance. Chief Noel said the blaze originated in the cellar of the butcher shop where the wood was stored.

COLLECTIONS OF SALES TAX HERE $901,443

State allocations and federal grants in the amount of $2,412,926 to the public schools of Adams County were made possible through revenue produced by the four per cent state sales tax during the 13-month fiscal period which ended last June 30, according to an announcement by Lawrence McCullough, supervisor of the York district office of the Sales Tax Bureau which covers York, Adams and Franklin Counties.

Mr. McCullough reported today that in the same 13-month period 8,627 individuals, firms and corporations in the three counties had collected $8,703,899.

The sales tax collections for this county in that period totaled $901,443. The number of firms and individuals collecting the tax in this county alone was not given. Mr. McCullough pointed out that under the law all sales tax money must be used in meeting the Commonwealth's commitments to public schools and state-aided or state-owned institutions of higher learning.

BREAKDOWN ON AID

State-wide the sales tax returns were $23,299,004 short of meeting the Commonwealth's share of the cost of education. Sales tax revenues totaled $422,474,000 and education allocations $445,773.04. The (Continued On Page 2)

Eisenhower Offers Aid To Gov.-Elect Scranton At Meeting Here Friday

There will be a very close relationship between Governor-elect William W. Scranton and the former President of the United States, Dwight D. Eisenhower, at least during the next four years while Pennsylvania will be under a Republican administration.

This became very evident when a beaming Scranton emerged from a long private conference with Gen. Eisenhower in the latter's office Friday afternoon. The men conferred for more than an hour after a 10-minute period allotted to photographers as soon as Scranton entered Eisenhower's office.

After the session the two walked downstairs, both visibly pleased with their conversation. After a hearty goodbye from Eisenhower, Scranton held an informal press conference with a half dozen reporters in front of the offices before the governor-elect stepped into a station wagon and was driven to Harrisburg from where he flew to his home in Scranton for the New Year weekend.

"It can be a source of satisfaction to all of us that Hotel Gettysburg continues to fulfill its responsibilities to this fine community. The recognition accorded the hotel by local and county residents as well as by the thousands of visitors whom we are privileged to serve is the best evidence of the fine manner in which the hotel is evaluated as a public service enterprise that is of importance to the community. Elisabethville Blasted By U.N. Planes As Battle Flares Anew In Katanga

By JOHN LATZ

ELISABETHVILLE. The Congo (AP) — United Nations planes bombed Elisabethville and the mining town of Kolwezi today as fighting continued around the secessionist Katanga capital.

The bombing took place as U.N. forces, taking the offensive after enduring two days of Katangan attacks, surrounded President Moise Tshombe's palace and seized other key points in Elisabethville.

There was no official word on the whereabouts of Tshombe, who toured the capital Friday and called on his gendarmes to stop shooting, but he was said to have escaped and gone into hiding.

WOUND CIVILIAN

Unconfirmed reports Friday indicated the Katangan president was trying to leave Elisabethville for the greater security of Kipushi, on the Northern Rhodesian border, or Kolwezi, to the east of the capital.

The U.N. was reported to have lost one Ethiopian killed and five wounded in fighting Friday.

Earlier reports of casualties listed seven U.N. soldiers wounded and eight civilians wounded. It was not known immediately if there was any duplication.

Despite the successes of U.N. troops, small arms and heavy mortar fire continued in several sectors of the town.

EARLY MORNING RAID

The fighting went on after two raids this morning by U.N. planes on the capital and on the airfield at Kolwezi, the base of Tshombe's rudimentary air force.

The raid on Elisabethville was carried out by a single aircraft at 4 a.m. The plane dropped about five bombs, but the targets and damage were not yet known.

The raid on Kolwezi was carried out by Swedish-made SAAB jet fighters. It is believed that three planes were destroyed on the ground by the SAABs.

READY TO HELP

Eisenhower opened his door to Scranton for any advice or counseling the governor-elect may desire in the next four years.

Following a private 75-minute meeting with the general at his office on the Gettysburg College campus, Scranton said:

"He told me he was ready to help me and my administration on an advisory or consulting basis. I, of course, would like to talk to him from time to time."

Scranton said their talk touched everything from "satellites to the kitchen stove."

He said Eisenhower pledged his "wholehearted support to what he calls a program of positive action."

FIRST PROBLEM

"We agreed that the number one problem (in the state) is economics, what with the curse of unemployment we have," Scranton said.

Scranton said Eisenhower approved of his pledge to recruit 100,000 Pennsylvanians to sell the state's industrial image across the country.

"He liked that approach very much," Scranton said, and offered his assistance to "get top personnel" to serve in that capacity.

However, the governor-elect said he did not ask Eisenhower to serve personally on the committee.

GOOD FISCAL POLICY

Another point that Eisenhower emphasized, Scranton said, was the "necessity for a strong, conservative fiscal policy in the state and the nation."

Scranton defined "conservative" to mean such things as "a balanced budget and a pay-as-you-go policy."

Their discussion did not touch upon Scranton's political future or state politics, Scranton said.

TENTH SNOW OF SEASON MAY TURN TO RAIN

For the 10th snow of the season, state Highways Department equipment was called out this morning to scatter antiskid material and to begin a new snowplowing chore.

The snow arrived from the southwest and the first was reported at 7:30 o'clock. By 8 a.m. the first truckloads of antiskid material had gone out on the highways garage on the Fairfield Rd. By 10:10 o'clock there were 35 trucks scattering antiskid material and the first grader had started snow removal work. More of the graders were being called out.

The first snow of the season that required attention to the highways occurred on November 3. State highways workmen have been called out subsequently for snow on these dates: November 18 and 20, December 6 and 7, December 8, 9 and 10, 21 and 22, 25 and 2

ASK TEACHERS TO HELP SAVE SCHOOL LAW

HARRISBURG (AP)—Outgoing Gov. David L. Lawrence has appealed to the powerful Pennsylvania State Education Association to help block efforts to repeal the state's controversial school district reorganization law.

"Act 561 stands in grave danger of emasculation or ultimate repeal," the governor warned in a speech at the association's 110th annual convention Friday night.

He made the appeal just hours after teachers and school administrators indulged in a heated debate over whether to "commend Lawrence" or just "note him" his statements on education.

IS COMMENDED

"This resolution was given considerable attention," argued Dr. Howard S. Stewart of New Wilmington, resolutions committee chairman. "The word 'commend' is not going to cost us anything and it may pay us dividends."

Lawrence was commended. However, it was carefully noted that the commendation was for Lawrence's statements on education, not his efforts—underscoring the PSEA's feeling that education has been shortchanged in the financial area during Lawrence's four years in office.

Lawrence however made no comment on the commendation. He said that "you—and all others who are concerned with the future of Pennsylvania education have a tough battle before you."

"POTENT, MISGUIDED"

"For the plain fact is that Act 561 played a decisive role in this year's political campaign—and those who are opposed to it are organized into a potent, if misguided striking force, against the law itself."

Act 561 calls for merging of Pennsylvania's 2,185 school districts into fewer, but larger units by mid 1965. Major objections to it are that it violates home rule and fails to provide for such things as teacher tenure, transportation costs and disposition of school subsidies.

Lawrence's successor, Gov.-elect William W. Scranton, has indicated he will seek a year long moratorium on the law to iron out the kinks.

NOT FOR "UNCLE DAVE"

Lawrence also took note of earlier action by the PSEA, the Pennsylvania School Boards Association and the Pennsylvania Congress of Parents and Teachers recommending a broader sales tax to help finance proposed increases in school subsidies and teacher salaries.

"I am confident that such a proposed program of increased state financial aid to school districts will be studied by your governmental leaders in the same spirit of rational consideration that you have given your deliberations," he said. Then departing from the script, he added: "You people who say this is four cents for Uncle Dave should say it's for the children of Pennsylvania."

Three Judges Convict Man

RIDGWAY, Pa. (AP)—A panel of three judges convicted Ernest E. Haynes, 49, of St. Marys of second degree murder Friday in the shooting of his wife.

President Judge Joseph L. Prambley pronounced the sentence.

Haynes was not present in the court when the verdict and sentence were announced. He will be formally sentenced Jan. 7.

Haynes was accused of shooting his wife, Lorretta, 48, last Sept. 7 at a roadside inn near St. Marys. She worked at the inn. State police arrested Haynes in St. Marys the next day.

CIVIL SERVICE EXTENDED TO 53 STATE JOBS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The outgoing Lawrence administration has authorized 20 new state job classifications and extended executive civil service to 53 other posts—just 2½ weeks before leaving office.

The action came at the final meeting of the state executive board, Pennsylvania's chief policy making body.

It was not learned immediately just how many individual jobs would be created under the new classifications.

Six of them, however, were established to cover new bureau directors jobs to implement reorganization of the state Health Department.

Another 10 classes also will be incorporated in the Health Department—nine for field investigators in the recently established drug control program and one for geologists in the water pollution control program.

4 OTHER CLASSES

The remaining four classes are to be divided between the Department of Public Instruction's civil defense education program and the state Forests and Waters Department's new breeding and disease control program.

David H. Kurtzman, state administration secretary and a member of the board, said the jobs are to be filled by applicants not presently in the state service.

The job-creating action could not be delayed until the Republican administration takes over Jan. 15, because there was no assurance the prospective appointees would wait that long, Kurtzman said.

But, he added, the appointments will still have to clear the office of incoming Gov. William W. Scranton.

Placed under civil service were classifications of employees at state mental hospitals, child psychiatric physicians, psychiatric casework supervisors and volunteer services supervisors.

GIVE REPORT ON HOUSING

WASHINGTON (AP)—Despite a "spectacular rise" in the income of Negroes in the last decade, relatively few of them have homes equal to those of white persons with similar incomes, a government report says.

The Housing and Home Finance Agency report, issued Friday, described the emergence of "a sizable nonwhite middle class" which it said provides a substantial market for new housing.

The report said there has been a narrowing of an educational gap between white persons and nonwhites and there is evidence that this improved economic situation is being reflected in increased home ownership and improved living standards by Negroes.

But it added: "Nonwhite families generally are housed in older, less expensive and lower quality housing than white families of similar incomes. Furthermore, the discrepancy is largely unchanged as the nonwhite family income rises."

In a foreword, Housing Administrator Robert C. Weaver said the study takes on added significance in the light of President Kennedy's executive order on equal opportunity in housing. Under it, federal home loan assistance will be denied to builders and sellers who practice racial discrimination.

State Sales Tax Totals $422 Million

HARRISBURG (AP)—Sales tax collections in Pennsylvania during the 1961-62 fiscal year totaled a whopping $422.4 million, but covered only 96 per cent of state public education costs.

The state Revenue Department reported Friday that total expenditures for education, including allocations, grants and subsidies to school districts and state institutions, were some $437.9 million.

The 4 per cent sales and use tax is earmarked for these expenditures but has never covered the outlays. The difference is made up in other revenues.

500 NEW JOBS AT NAVY DEPOT

The Mechanicsburg Naval Supply Depot, where a number of countians are employed, was picked by the Defense Department Friday as a major site for the new Defense Supply Agency. The decision apparently means almost 500 new jobs will be added to the payroll at Mechanicsburg. At the same time, Air Force supply depots at Olmstead Air Force Base, Middletown, and the New Cumberland General Army Depot are expected to remain at present strength with no civilian job cuts.

Mechanicsburg will become one of seven key supply installations in the new department-level system. Others are located from Virginia to California.

The centers will annually stockpile about $3 billion in supplies, representing more than 1.2 million items needed by the Army, Air Force and Navy.

The integrated warehouse and distribution center will streamline present military buying and storage practices. It will not require any new construction.

Mechanicsburg was selected as the wholesale military supply center for northeastern states and for the New York Port of Embarkation. It will also serve as overseas support for the Army and Air Force in the Atlantic area and Europe.

The national system will take about two years to get into full operation, January 1, 1963, is the starting date for most points.

2 WOMEN WITH 22 YANKS HELD IN CUBAN JAILS

NEW YORK (AP)—Twenty-two Americans, including two women, are believed to be held in Cuban prisons.

Some have been sentenced to long terms on charges ranging from spying to taking part in anti-Castro activities. Others have not been tried; in some cases charges against them have not been disclosed.

Little is known about the backgrounds of most of them. Some probably went to Cuba in search of adventure.

A State Department spokesman said this week that attorney James B. Donovan and the Red Cross are trying to have the Americans released as a sequel to the freeing of more than 1,113 Cubans who participated in the Bay of Pigs invasion.

NOT IN INVASION

None of the Americans took part in the invasion.

Although the number imprisoned has been carried in news accounts as 22 or 23, the State Department said its information is incomplete.

Jesse Gordon, correspondent for The Nation magazine, released Thursday a list of 22 names which he said he obtained from the Swiss Embassy in Havana. The Swiss now represent the United States in Cuba.

The two women are Geraldine Shamma, about 50, a native of Boston, and Martha O'Neal of Atlanta, Ga.

Both were arrested in 1960 and are said to be held in Carcel de Mujeres Prison on charges of engaging in counterrevolutionary activity. Mrs. Shamma was given 10 years and Mrs. O'Neal nine years.

NEW BUILDING

Catholic school—for many years a garage occupied the alley from the implement shed; a house just south of Swope's SService Station on Carlisle St.; the former Rose residence at 9 Steinwehr Ave.; a house at 565 Steinwehr Ave.; the house west of Adams County Motors on York St., and the old Cyclorama, plus a number of garages and sheds.

For the first 11 months and six days of the year, Mayor William G. Weaver served as building official for the community. Then Charles E. Kuhn, 286 Ridge Ave., who will also become the town's new treasurer in January, was named building official. Of the 10, four were demolition. One permit, issued November 29, was for construction of a new storage shed or garage for $700. The others were for repairs, one for $685 for general repairs to G. C. Murphy store in November; one for $500 for the enlargement of Weishaar's Store on Baltimore St. to include the former Ramer Insurance Agency; one for $300 for repair of a porch and roof at 222 E. Middle St.; one for $800 for Gettysburg Construction Company to enclose the unloading ramp at the Warner Hospital, and one for $400 for Allen McDonnell to shore up the headstones at the post office on Baltimore St. This month. The shoring is temporary, until two large stones which have cracked can be replaced.

Kuhn is paid one-half the amount of permits. His "salary" so far has been $2.20.

The breakdown of permits and amounts listed as the value of the proposed construction by months follows: January, 3, $1,400; February, 3, $10,750; March, 6, $11,950; April, 15, $46,925; May, 10, $238,684; June, 16, $60,258; July, 20, $29,770; August, 18, $26,850; September, 16, $76,100; October, 12, $15,275; November, 11, $12,485; December, 4, $1,700.

Frederick County Will Have Ski Run

The first ski-run in Frederick County and the closest one to the Washington-Baltimore metropolitan network will be opened at Braddock Heights about January 5.

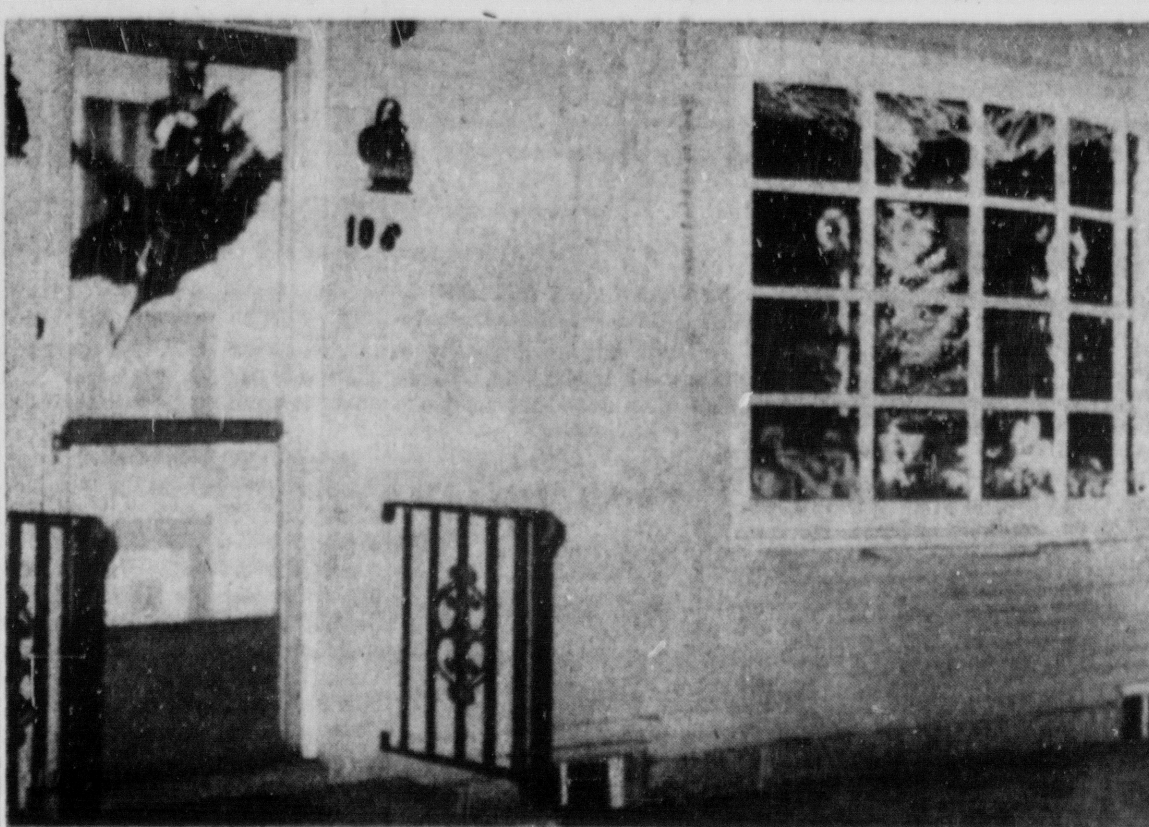

The 900-foot ski-way was carved out of the rocky west slope of the mountain. It starts about a quarter of a mile north of the dance pavilion in the park, swings to the left and stops beside Schley Inn. Bulldozers began grinding their way up and down the slope last October, uprooting trees, dislodging rocks and leveling a path for the ski-way.

They dug a path for the T-bar lift for the slope, graded a gentle slope for beginning skiers and dug a 280,000-gallon pond.

German Gets Life For Aiding Escapes

BERLIN (AP) — Harry Seidel,

24, who tried to help refugees escape through a tunnel under the Berlin wall, was sentenced to life imprisonment today by the Supreme Court of East Germany.

The sentence, reported by the official East German news agengiven for aiding refugees.

Seidel was a refugee himself who joined a tunneling group in West Berlin to help others. He was captured Nov. 14 at the East

Berlin end of a 70-yard tunnel under the wall. He had gone through to guide a group of refugees to safety, but East German guards had been tipped off and he fell into their hands.

POLICE DOUBT DRUNK KILLED GRIMES GIRLS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A man who confessed the 1957 slaying of the Grimes sisters in Chicago gave excellent details of the crime, police say, but he may not have been the murderer.

"We want to be sure he's a good suspect, not just another guy who wants a free ride back to Chicago," a Los Angeles detective said Friday.

There are some discrepancies in the man's confession, officers

CONFESS KILLING

On Friday, sandy-haired Alfred

Smith Lawless, about to end a jail sentence for drunkenness, told police:

"Six years ago today I killed

Barbara and Patricia Grimes and

I've been running ever since."

Lawless said he picked up the girls at a Chicago theater, molested them, beat and choked them, bound them, and threw them from an auto.

The nude bodies of Barbara

Grimes, 15, and her sister, Patricia, 13, were found in a ditch beside a country road southwest of Chicago on Jan. 22, 1957.

Chicago police—who have a permanent team assigned to the case—have a list of 5,000 persons who have been investigated as possible suspects.

Chicago detectives said Lawless, 34, gave an excellent description of the girls, including knowledge of Patricia's crooked toe and the clothing they wore at the time of their disappearance.

FROZE TO DEATH

However, an autopsy showed the girls froze to death and had not been sexually molested, beaten or strangled, as Lawless claims.

Chicago police and sheriff's officers said they had no immediate plans to come to Los Angeles to question Lawless.

Rev. McHale Resigns Charge At Steelton: The Rev. W. Edward McHale, son-in-law of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Waltemyer, 251 Springs Ave., announced to the congregation his resignation Sunday as pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, Steelton. He has served as the pastor of the Steelton church for 11 years.

Rev. McHale has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Muhlenberg Memorial Lutheran Church, Philadelphia, and will begin his duties there in January. The Philadelphia church has a confirmed membership of nearly 1,000. It has been without a pastor since the sudden death of Dr. Charles F. Dapp in September.

Rev. McHale is a graduate of the University of West Virginia and of Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary. His wife, the former Ruth Waltemyer, is a graduate of Gettysburg High School and Gettysburg College. The Muhlenberg church is located at 13th and Ruscomb Sts., and the parsonage at 1332 Wagner St., in the Logan section of Philadelphia.

York Street Bank Declares Two Dividends: The Gettysburg National Bank will pay a semi-annual regular dividend of four per cent and an extra dividend of two per cent, according to action taken by the board of directors at a regular weekly meeting Tuesday morning.

Coupled with the four per cent regular dividend declared in June, this brings to a total of 10 per cent the amount of dividends declared for the year.

Other action taken by the board included the approval of the transfer of $50,000 from the undivided profits account to the surplus account.

C. A. Wills, president of the bank, announced that during the past year the bank paid interest on savings accounts of over $110,000 and paid out on Christmas Savings an additional $114,000.

A bonus has been paid to the employees of over $6,200 and over $7,300 has been placed in the Employees Retirement Fund.

Soldiers Home For Christmas: Two Adams county brothers, both in the service, spent Christmas together this year for the first time in two years. They are Sgt. Alfred J. Miller and Pfc. Richard P. Miller, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Paul N. Miller, Gettysburg R. 5.

Sgt. Miller arrived at the Harrisburg airport from Germany. He left Frankfurt December 15 aboard a Pan-American plane, arrived in New York City the following morning and boarded a Trans-World plane for Harrisburg. He entered the service January 23, 1951 and was stationed at Camp Atterbury, Ind., for basic training. He then attended the 112th Non-Commissioned Officers Academy for a six-week course in infantry tactics, small arm weapons, methods of instruction and leadership. He is weapon squad leader and troop information and education non-com for Co. C of the 112th Infantry Regiment. He participated in large scale maneuvers last fall with NATO troops. He left Camp Atterbury for duty overseas with Pennsylvania's 28th Division.

Pfc. Miller and his wife, the former Josephine Redding, arrived home for the Christmas holidays on a 15-day leave. He is stationed with the 216th Chemical Service Co., where he is taking a special course in photography. He has recently been assigned to the Atomic Energy Commission assisting with experiments in Mercury. Nev. He will return to the arsenal on January 29.

RESPONSIBILITY

A Spanish bishop by the name of Isidore of Seville — remember the name — once wrote these wonderful words: "Study as if you were to live forever. Live as if you were to die tomorrow."

Be responsible, first, to yourself.

Responsibility is one thing that all must face and that none can escape. It starts with the baby in the cradle. It never ends! For the responsibility of a man goes on even after his work in the flesh is over. A man performs a great deed. It lives in printed pages and goes on in its influence as long as there is any life in the world at all.

Be responsible, first, to yourself.

Individual responsibility! It's the thing that makes the man. Without it there is no man. Bear in mind, you who must realize responsibility to your employer, or to your friend, or to your home — your first responsibility is to yourself! And if you are weak and false to yourself — if you wobble in doing the things that mean your very life and success — you are already a failure.

Be responsible, first, to yourself.

Then feel your responsibility. No one is useless who believes that some things depend upon him, or her, alone. You who read this little preachment, take it to heart. Be unafraid of at least attempting larger things. Convince your own self that you have worth and can prove it — and the tasks of big moment will take care of you and lift you into importance and affluence — the gifts of having the courage to take responsibility and shoulder it. But, remember to —

Be responsible, first, to yourself.

If I slept a little longer, if I'd earlier quit my bed,

If I hadn't denied the new suit but had worn the old instead,

If I'd only kept my temper! I can say it all day long,

If things otherwise had happened there would still be something wrong.

If I'd saved what I have squandered, if I'd spent what I have saved,

If I'd never stooped to folly but had always well behaved,

A gun is fired from the fort, rockets soar from the ships in harbor and at the signal of a bugle call, four or five hundred spark-trails are down the night, as the torches are tossed into the galley.

HEARING FOR 2 IN SLAYING

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — Testimony is expected to resume sometime next week in a preliminary hearing for two Williamsport men charged with murder in the fatal beating of another man last Aug. 15.

The defendants, Frederick Hunter, 33, and Raymond Syc, 31, appeared before justice of the peace A. Edgar Eschenbach for two and a half hours Thursday.

However, time ran out and Eschenbach ordered the hearing continued. No new date was set, but both Eschenbach and Lycoming County Dist. Atty. Paul W. Reed said they hoped it could be resumed next week.

Eschenbach must decide whether or not to order the two held for grand jury action. They are accused of savagely beating George Danison in Loyalsock Twp., during a robbery attempt. Danison died a few weeks later.

1 B. C. and 1 A. D. Are Only One Year Apart:

According to our calendar, one would naturally assume that between the year B. C. and the year A. D. there should be a year called zero. As a matter of fact, no such year exists, as far as historians are concerned, and the year A. D. follows directly after the year B. C. A person born in 3 B. C. would be four years old when one is calculating data in that period. When adding B. C. and A. D. years, it is necessary to always subtract one to compensate for the year zero omitted between 1 B. C. and 1 A. D.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

BEST FACE FORWARD. Love-ly faces have one quality in common — naturalness. Young damsels of en miss that point and pile on make-up, with a result which completely falsifies a girl's true charm.

Equally misguided, many a mature woman goes "bare" faced. Natural beauty is no more a trumped-up affair than a trumped-up facade. Ever and always, it is making the most of your endowments.

At any age, a skillful use of cosmetics softens surface problems, so that they never form a visual block between what you look to be and what you are—between the superficial and the real. Only study yourself and you will find that is so, whether you think of yourself as rather plain or absolutely dazzling.

To seem the work of nature's hand, make-up first must complement your individual coloring and type. Next it must be applied so cleverly that, with the possible exception of lipstick, it never appear a paint job to the observing eye.

Rightly or wrongly, people in this fast-moving world do judge us on appearances. Certainly at first meeting. Then the face that looks either drab or garish is apt to be passed by. But the traffic stops for a groomed, pleasant face. Getting to know the possessor seems worth the exertion.

Viewed in that light, a resolution to put your best face forward every day in 1963 would not be an idle whim. Rather it would reflect respect, for yourself and others.

THE EYES OF YOUTH

You are not lost to youthful beauty because of dark circles, puffiness or wrinkles around the eyes. These problems can be brought under control by proper skin care, cosmetic applications, health habits and facial expressions. Methods are detailed in my leaflet, THE EYES OF YOUTH. RANSOM OF CUBANS TO BE BIG TAX LOSS

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Through tax loss, the U.S. government's share of paying the Cuban prisoners ransom could reach $20 million.

Mitchell Rogovin of the Internal Revenue Service, in an interview Friday, cited that sum — spread over three years — as the highest possible loss to the U.S. Treasury from the deal that sent millions of dollars of food, drugs, and other supplies to Fidel Castro's Cuba in exchange for the 1,113 Bay of Pigs prisoners.

But Rogovin said he thought the tax loss could be less than $20 million. He stressed that it could be considered a tax loss only in the sense that the U.S. government always loses revenue through income tax deductions after some drive for charity.

SERVES AS COUNSEL

Rogovin is counsel to the commissioner of internal revenue. He was a member of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy's four-man team that helped manage the government's part in the deal that freed the prisoners.

Here is how Rogovin figures the possible tax loss:

Although the goods had a value in Havana of $53 million, Rogovin said, their actual wholesale value in the United States, before packing and transportation costs, would be no more than $40 million.

Companies may deduct the wholesale value of the contributed goods as part of their allowed 5 per cent deduction for charity. If a company uses up its 5 per cent deduction this year, it can deduct its contributions as part of its 5 per cent deduction in 1963 or 1964.

LESS TO TAX

Therefore, the $40 million contribution to the ransom means the government has $40 million less income to tax, provided:

1. You assume the companies would have sold the $40 million worth of goods if they had not contributed it, and

2. You assume the companies will be able to list the contributions within their 5 per cent deductions for 1962, 1963, or 1964.

The corporate income tax is 52 per cent. If the government has $40 million less income to tax, it loses about $20 million in tax revenue.

BOARD REJECTS PARDON PLEA

HARRISBURG (AP) — Charles W. Stickler Jr., one of four men convicted of fraud in the 1956, $19.5 million turnpike scandal, has lost a bid for freedom.

The state pardons board rejected Stickler's appeal for commutation of his maximum five-year sentence on Friday.

Stickler was convicted of conspiracy and false pretense June 5, 1958, but didn't begin serving his term at Dauphin County prison until early 1961 because of various appeals.

He appealed to the pardons board last November to have his sentence commuted so he would be eligible for parole.

Stickler, a resident of Reading, was president of the now defunct Manu-Mine Research and Development Corp. at the time of the scandal.

He was charged specifically with obtaining some $9 million in unnecessary contracts to fill non-existent mine voids beneath the railroad of the toll road.

Others convicted in the case were Clayton Landslide, currently on parole; and former turnpike commissioners Thomas J. Evans and James F. Torrance. Evans and Torrance already have served their sentences.

Unbeaten Warriors Defeat Alumni 33-32 In Overtime For Sixth Straight Win

Trailing as much as eight points early in the final period, Gettysburg High School's unbeaten basketball team fought back to gain a deadlock at the end of the regulation game and then went on to nip the Alumni 33-32 in an overtime period, Friday evening before one of the largest crowds to witness the annual affair in a number of years.

It was the sixth straight for Coach Merrill Eckhart's varsity and it beat a pretty fair Alumni outfit which was in good physical condition with the possible exception of one or two players.

Most of the trills were packed into the final seven minutes of play after scoring had been at a minimum during the early part of the game when both squads encountered considerable trouble in penetrating zone defenses used by the other.

GET QUICK LEAD

The Warriors sped off to a 7-0 lead in the first five minutes only to have the Alumni come back on a foul by Tom Duane, goals by Mark Eckert and Roger Eckert, and a free toss by Dick Crist as the quarter ended 7-6.

Hardy Nichols tied the count with a foul to start the second period after which Dick Finkbner hit on a long try and Bob Deitz connected from close for the Warriors. The teams were deadlocked at 12-12 at intermission.

The Alumni got the lead for the first time at the start of the third period on goals by Dick Crist and a pair by Eckert. The Warriors caught up at 19-19 and just as the buzzer sounded the Alumni scored to make it 21-19.

Nichols landed a lay-up and Eckert sank two quick goals as the Alumni surged ahead 27-19. The Warriors fought back with eight straight points on a goal by Eddie Tilberg, a goal and foul by Finkbner and Tilberg which put the high school ahead 29-27 with 1:34 left. Twelve seconds later Crist converted a pair of fouls to tie the count and neither team could score in the remainder of the regulation game.

THRILLING FINISH

After 42 seconds of the three-minute overtime Finkbner converted a pair of fouls and a half a minute later Bob Deitz dropped in a goal as the Warriors took a 33-29 lead. With 28 seconds left Eckert connected for the Alumni. The Alumni gained possession of the ball again and with six seconds left Crist was fouled. He converted but the Warriors then took possession as time ran out.

Finkbner was high man for the game with 14 points while Eddie Tilberg added eight for the Warriors. Eckert led the Alumni with 10 and Eckert netted eight.

The Warriors will be idle until Tuesday, January 8, when they meet fast-moving Camp Hill here in a Blue Mountain League game.

Bermudian Springs gained its first victory after four losses when it crushed the Quincy cagers Friday evening on the winners' floor 65-51 in the makeup of a postponed A-F game.

Glenn Gruver's Eagles zoomed out in front 20-4 in the first period and at half time led 34-24. The Eagles led no doubt as to the final outcome when they amassed a 57-33 margin at the end of three frames.

Nine Bermudian players broke into the scoring column with Warren Weaver pouring in 20 points while Joe Wolf and Ed Rodrock added 14 and 12 respectively.

Billet and McCordell led Quincy with 14 and 14 points, respectively.

The Bermudian jayvees lost their fifth straight in the preliminary 39-9.

SPRING GROVE STOPS DELONE

A disastrous third period when they were outscored 15-6 proved fatal to the Delone Catholic High School dribblers Friday evening as they lost a 65-54 decision to Spring Grove. It was the second straight loss for the Squires who won their first four games. The Rockets are now 7-1.

Spring Grove jumped to a 19-14 lead in the first period but the Squires came back to deadlock the score at 35-35 at half time.

Delone's attack bogged down in the third period as the Rockets moved ahead 50-41 and the Squires never caught up in the evenly waged final frame.

Jimmy Roth was the big gun for Delone and captured the scoring honors for the game with 24 tallies. Spring Grove's well-balanced attack was led by Mel Sterner, Bankert, Bryan Crist and Bill Moul, all of whom scored in double figures with Sterner netting 17.

The Delone reserves remained unbeaten by winning the preliminary 29-28.

Delone will open its Central Pennsylvania Catholic League schedule next Friday when it tangles with York Catholic at McSherrystown.

2 ROSE BOWL TEAMS GEARED FOR DEFENSE

By DAVE O'HARA

Associated Press Sports Writer
PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—National champion Southern California and runner-up Wisconsin each pack explosive scoring attacks, but few observers would be surprised by a hard-hosed defensive battle in the 49th Rose Bowl game New Year's Day.

"We believe defense will be the key to the game—and we think we have a very good defense," Southern Cal Coach John McKay said today.

Wisconsin Coach Milt Bruhn agrees that defense will play a major role in the first post-season meeting of the nation's top two college powers. And he's as proud of his defensive players as he is of those who account for the scoring.

LAUDS PLAYERS

"We've come a long way this year because everyone has done his job," Bruhn said. "It's difficult now to tell some of the sophomores and juniors from the seniors without knowing them personally or by number."

The Badgers led the nation in scoring with an average of 31.7 points they gained in posting an 8-1 record. However, the Trojans weren't too far behind as they averaged 21.9 points a game while winning the national title with 10 straight victories.

There is little difference between the clubs on defense. Southern Cal allowed only 55 points, less than a touchdown per game and had three shutouts—7-0 over Iowa, 14-0 over Washington and 25-0 in the regular season win over Notre Dame.

HAD ONE LOSS

In one less game, Wisconsin surrendered 88 points, but many were scored late in the outings already clinched. No opponent scored more than two touchdowns despite the Badgers' rugged seven game Big Ten schedule and meetings with New Mexico State and Notre Dame. The only loss was 14-7 to Ohio State.

BLUE AND GRAY CLASH TODAY

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)

Coaches predicted touchdowns and the weatherman predicted showers as Yankee met Rebel today in the 25th annual Blue-Gray football game here.

The forecast of occasional showers cast a shadow over predictions of a wide-open game.

Although some of the all-star meetings in the past have resulted in high scores, never before have the pre-game predictions and practice routines had such an offensive luster as this year.

Southern Coach Tom Nugent of Maryland hasn't pulled any punches about his strategy. The Gray squad has practiced offense and more offense.

The Blue squad too, under the tutelage of Coach Robert Devaney of Nebraska, has leaned heavily toward offense through the week's drills.

The South has a 14-9 edge in the series.

The South broke a three-year winning streak by the Blues last year with a narrow 9-7 victory.

PLAYERS ARE GIVEN AWARDS

Plaques for outstanding players on the Littlestown baseball team of the South Penn Sandlot League were awarded at the annual banquet Thursday evening in Dutterer's Restaurant, Littlestown. Host for the event was L. D. Snyder, of Littlestown Hardware and Foundry.

Clyde Crouse, stellar first baseman, received two plaques, the best batting average and the most hits, while Bob Weaver won the award for the best pitching performance.

Crouse appeared in 20 games, had 82 times at bat, stroked 26 hits, including five doubles, one three bagger and one home run, for a .317 average. Others on the team who hit over .300 were Richard Bankert at .348 and ineligible for the title because of the number of at bats; Bruce Stair with .311 and Bob Weaver with .308.

The overall team average in hitting was .232 with nine home runs.

The pitching award went to Bob Weaver, who in 14 games twirled 119 innings, allowing 21 earned runs for a 1.44 ERA. He gave up only 12 walks and struck out 106.

The five Littlestown pitchers—Weaver, Phil Whisler, Gary Worley, Dean Yealy and Richard Bankert—pitched 22 games and had a 1.84 earned run average.

Crouse, with 26 hits led Bruce Stair and Paul Solomon, who had 19 hits apiece.

Another plaque will be given to the best defensive player next season.

A minor technological breakthrough has been achieved in Yellowstone National Park. Bear-proof lids, placed on garbage cans throughout the park in the summer of 1962, defied all efforts of grizzlies to remove them.

Philadelphians Cheer Warriors

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

They boomed when the San Francisco Warriors came home to Philadelphia.

But the catcalls changed to cheers Friday night as the Warriors, who moved from Philadelphia to the West Coast this season, scored a 124-117 victory over the Syracuse Nationals in a National Basketball Association game.

In other NBA action, the Boston Celtics cut off a Cincinnati rally and won 121-113. The other teams were idle, although the Chicago Zephyrs picked up a new coach.

The Chicago team dismissed Jack McMahon and replaced him with team captain Bob Leonard. The Zephyrs are in the cellar of the Western Division, with a 12-26 record.

LOYOLA GUNS FOR TITLE IN TILT TONIGHT

By ED CORRIGAN

Out of a staggering total of 60 basketball tournaments—some big and some so tiny you'd need a map to find them—three of the ranking teams in the country—Loyola of Chicago, Illinois and Arizona State—will shoot for major titles tonight.

Loyola, the nation's highest scoring team, rolled over Memphis State, 94-82, in the semifinals of the All-College Tournament at Oklahoma City and will meet Wyoming for the crown. Jerry Harkness led the Ramblers, No. 3 in the current Associated Press poll, with 26 points. Wyoming advanced with a 65-64 decision over Oklahoma City.

Illinois, No. 4 downed New York University, 91-84, after trailing by 13 points at the end of the first half. The undefeated Illini will play West Virginia, 94-82 victor over St. Bonaventure, in the final in Madison Square Garden that will be televised nationally.

Arizona State, once beaten and No. 6 in the country, clashes with Canisius in the final of the Queen City tournament in Buffalo, N.Y. Don were idle Friday.

But the mad war will stop abruptly after tonight's games. All the tournaments will be over and the teams will prepare for the serious business of conference races starting next week.

Two of the big ones were settled Friday night when Georgia Tech edged Florida 63-61 in the final of the Gator Bowl Tournament in Jacksonville, Fla., and Miami, Fla. squeaked past Tulane, 60-58, in the winup of the Hurricane tournament in Miami Beach.

Mississippi State, No. 10 in the rankings, dropped a 79-76 decision to Houston in the Sugar Bowl tournament in New Orleans.

Houston will meet undefeated Auburn in the final, which was won by Mississippi State last year. Auburn came from behind in the last 4 minutes to whip Gavier of Ohio, 64-57.

Duke, No. 8, and striving to protect its ranking after two straight losses, turned back Princeton, 85-74, with Jeff Mullins dropping in 28 points.

Here are the semifinal results of some of the major tournaments:

Quaker City at Philadelphia—Brigham Young 81, Providence 78 and St. Joseph's 59, Villanova 54. Villanova was the defending champion.

GOP Convention

Chairman Dies

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Walter Sims Hallanan, 72, West Virginia's Republican national committeeman for 30 years and temporary chairman of the 1962 GOP convention in Chicago, died at his home Friday night after suffering from a heart ailment for several years. In 1923, Hallanan was a founder of the Plymouth Oil Co. and was named president. He was board chairman at his death.

50,000 WILL SEE GATOR TILT

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)

Penn State is aiming for a fourth straight post-season victory against Florida in the Gator Bowl football game today and is a solid favorite to accomplish that mission.

A sellout crowd of 50,000 plus a national television audience (CBS, 1:45 p.m., EST) were set to watch this 18th edition of the classic pitting the two-time Eastern champions against the unpredictable Florida Gators (6-4) of the Southeastern Conference.

Led by All-America end Dave Robinson and a host of professional draft plums, the Nittany Lions of Coach Rip Engle had the best record (9-1) and most solid November stretch run of any of his 13 clubs at University Park, Pa.

Engle insisted delays by weather and a wild plane ride here never permitted him to whip the squad back into its November form. At the Florida camp, Coach Ray Graves thought his Gators were as ready as they could be.

PACKERS ARE FAVORED OVER GIANTS SUNDAY

NEW YORK (AP)—Green Bay

remains a one-touchdown favorite over the New York Giants in Sunday's National Football League title game with a chance of a heavy field at Yankee Stadium.

The weatherman's revised forecast called for a chance of snow, mixed with rain tonight, rain Sunday morning and partial clearing in the afternoon. The field, covered against the weather, was firm for the two clubs' final drills today.

Vince Lombardi, coach of the defending champion Packers, said Paul Hornung's injured knee was "perfect" but hedged when asked if he would start the Golden Boy of 1961 at halfback.

WAITS FOR SUNDAY

"I'll know better about that Sunday," said Lombardi Friday night in a mass interview at press headquarters. "The other boy (Tom Moore) has been playing well, too. It all depends on how he (Hornung) feels and how he felt Sunday morning."

Lombardi said Jerry Kramer, who took over the placement and field goal kicking jobs after Hornung's knee was injured in mid-season, would continue. Hornung has been kicking this week in practice at Green Bay but Lombardi said he was not kicking well. Either Kramer or Willie Wood will kick off for the Packers.

NOTED FOR DEFENSE

McClendon's forecast was rather surprising considering that both teams are noted for their defense. But he

Easy To Learn Ways To Make Party Giving Simple

One of your resolutions for 1963 could well be: "I'll try to make my entertaining as simple as ABC."

To help you meet your goal you might take the home study course on entertaining.

Available from The Pennsylvania State University, the correspondence course includes numerous menus for company breakfasts, dinners, buffets, smorgasbords, coffee hours and teas. It gives suggestions for table decorations and games for school-age parties. In fact, it covers just about every party occasion.

SLIMMING WITH A PLAN

Chart a plan of action if you're beginning a slimming program. Height, body build and sex affect a person's best weight. To know how many calories you're getting every day, get a calorie counter. Then use the same size servings of food it measures.

To lose a pound each week, calculate the number of calories you need every day. Your physician can show you how to do this. When you know the number of calories you may have, plan menus for meals and snacks, but keep them within the calorie limit. To protect your health, discuss your menu plans with your physician and get his approval.

Plan meals that include milk, meat, fruits and vegetables and cereal foods to avoid a listless and irritable feeling. You may do well to use the lowest calorie foods in each of the four food groups, such as buttermilk instead of whole milk.

Type of food preparation also changes the number of calories. Broiled, boiled or baked meats usually have fewer calories than fried meats. Include all the dark green leafy vegetables you wish—they are low in calories, yet supply many needed nutrients. When you eat slowly, small servings seem to contain more food.

NEED ARTISTIC INTERESTS

Art for the young child should not be confined to the easel in the school. The activity area for the spontaneous development of a child's artistic interests is a necessary part of the home environment.

Facilities for a child to express himself visually through imaginative drawing, painting, modeling or building are as important to his development as books, toys and games. To deprive a child of these opportunities is to deprive him of one segment of life which would lead to a greater development of his total personality.

A family with young children would be wise to set aside a room or a corner of a room to satisfy their artistic imaginations. Equipment for the area should include a stool and a table low enough for the child to work comfortably. Provide crayons, paint and chalk and suitable paper to use with them. Include materials for building and modeling.

The floor and walls in the area should be of easy-to-clean materials. While working, the child needs to be free to express himself and not be afraid of reprimand if he spills paint or steps on a crayon. Let him know that the space you provide for him is where he can do his art work.

See that a child has wall space to display his art. Remember that child art is in the child's world and you should not expect adult work. Appreciate the child's work for what it is.

The common field mouse seldom lives more than a year. Since the tiny creature must devour its own weight in grass and seeds every day, it wears itself out in the never-ending hunt for food. The mouse also is the prey of many larger animals and birds.

U.S. WILL SEND MORE SUPPLIES TO HELP CONGO

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is expected to announce shortly that it will supply more military equipment for the United Nations' Congo operation.

The announcement may be made within a week and the most urgently needed material will be flown immediately to the Congo, authoritative informants said today.

The most important items on the U.N. shopping lists are 10 fighter planes. They are needed to give air protection to U.N. ground troops and to fend off hit-and-run attacks of the Katanga air force, estimated to consist of about 20 airplanes of various types and vintage.

APPROVES LIST

The list of requested material—a detailed document drafted by the Indian commanders of the U.N. air force—was given to Lt. Gen. Louis W. Truman, head of a U.S. fact-finding mission which returned from the Congo this week.

Truman, informants said, approved the U.N. list after on-the-spot verification of the requirements and he submitted it Friday evening to the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

The final decision rests with President Kennedy, officials said, and added that knowing Kennedy's concern about the deteriorating Congo situation they felt sure the United Nations will get what it asks for.

The United Nations also wants a prefabricated steel bridge, air transport planes and 2½ ton trucks.

High U.S. sources indicated that the United States made no commitment to supply the fighter planes.

Some officials said that while the United States will certainly provide transport planes and trucks for troop transportation, the decision on the fighters depends on how many planes other nations turn over to the U.N. force.

In other words, the United States would fill in the gap if it is found that the United Nations does not have enough fighters to match Katanga's air force.

As both India and Ethiopia are withdrawing their planes from the Congo, the United Nations presently count on only three Swedish jet fighters. U.S. officials noted, however, that Iran has pledged to send four jet fighters. Others are expected from Italy and the Philippines, and an additional four fighters from Sweden.

Good Set Of Farm Records Necessary At End Of Year

FRANK ZETTLE
County Farm Agent

Years ago, before records were required to complete income tax forms, most farmers were satisfied with the records they could remember or with a few figures that they scratched with a nail on the barn door.

While farm record keeping over the years has improved greatly, there is still a lot to be desired in many cases. Many farmers who keep an adequate set of books for income tax purposes do not use them to analyze their farm business to any extent. Once the income tax is in the mail, the books are put away and forgotten. When properly used, there is much additional information in these records which take a lot of the guesswork out of farm management decisions.

A good set of farm records is necessary at this time of the year when most farmers take the time to review the past year's farm business and plan future adjustments. A set of Penn State farm account books can be obtained from your county agent's office. A popular feature of these books is the separate book for inventory and depreciation schedules where such information can be kept together over a five-year period of time. These records are helpful in figuring income taxes.

PULP FOR DAIRY COWS

Many dairymen are using dried citrus pulp as a roughage substitute or a means of extending their supply of homegrown grains. It is similar to dried beet pulp in feeding value, being somewhat higher in total digestible nutrient, but lower in digestible protein.

As much as 40 per cent dried citrus pulp may be included in the concentrate mixture, if necessary, to extend the grain supply. Citrus pulp contains somewhat more net energy than corn and cob chop.

When used as a roughage substitute, dried citrus pulp is often fed at rates of 4 to 12 pounds per head daily. One pound of the dried citrus pulp can replace 2 pounds of average or fair quality hay. Although this feedstuff can be fed wet, it is usually best fed in the dry form. Some cows do not relish dried citrus pulp when it is first fed, but they develop a liking for it.

Based on its energy content, a dairyman can afford to pay as much as 200 per cent as much for a ton of dried citrus pulp as for an equal amount of average quality hay. Thus, dried citrus pulp would be worth approximately sixty dollars a ton as a roughage substitute with average quality hay selling at $30 a ton.

Accidents resulting in nonfatal injuries occur to about a third of the farm population annually, researchers found. About 19 per cent of farm people are injured seriously enough in these accidents to lose time from their work and about 3 per cent are permanently disabled each year.

Falls most common
Traffic accidents account for many of the serious injuries farm people have away from the farm. Accidents on farms are often associated with farm machinery. Falls are the most common kind of accident in farm homes.

Hospitalization and medical treatment are believed to account for less than a fourth of the total cost of farm accidents.

CASABLANCA (AP)—Seven crew members of the Cuban freighter Pinar del Rio have asked political asylum in Morocco, authorities said Friday.

The ship arrived Monday with miscellaneous cargo and intended to remain 24 hours. Seven of the 36 crew members refused to sail. The 3,099-ton Pinar del Rio is registered in Havana and owned by the Cuban Maritime Development Department.

The Los Angeles Angels recorded 15 shutouts last season. Ken McBride led the team with four.

ACCIDENTS NOT DECLINING

The number of farm-accident fatalities is not declining in proportion to the decline in farm population. This information comes from a recent report issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Reasons for the continuing high death rate in farm accidents are: increasing average age of people on farms; farms are isolated, with little supervision of work and not much opportunity for an injured person to obtain first aid promptly; and traffic on rural highways is less controlled than on urban streets.

Accidents resulting in nonfatal injuries occur to about a third of the farm population annually, researchers found. About 19 per cent of farm people are injured seriously enough in these accidents to lose time from their work and about 3 per cent are permanently disabled each year.

Edible Eggshells, Lighted Fields And Dairy Factories Seen For Farms By 1982

NEW YORK—Eggshells that can be eaten, cows that tell the farmer what to feed them and weekend rocket trips to Australia—these are just some of the startling innovations one might find on a typical American farm of 1982, according to the December issue of a national farm magazine.

Among the predictions made by the editors of "Electricity on the Farm," in the article, "What Will Farming Be Like 20 Years From Now?" are:

Eggs with soft, pliable, edible shells, due to special poultry breeding and feed diets.

END TO SURPLUSES

Miniature transistorized radio transmitters implanted in animals' bodies, which would signal computers as to the animals' physical condition. The computer then would figure out for the farmer just how much of which types of feed would make the animal produce best at lowest cost. The computer could be electrically connected directly to mechanical feeding devices which would automatically provide the correct feed and water without any human labor or supervision.

An end to farm surpluses, despite greatly increased per-farm production, due to an international marketing system and a continuing worldwide population explosion.

Pelleted feed for animals made from hay dried right in the field with atomic energy.

SEVERAL HARVESTS YEARLY

Electrically-lighted fields, allowing several harvests within one growing season.

Dairy "factories," where cows stay in an air-conditioned, controlled-climate barn all day long every day of the year.

Solution of the critical fresh water shortage by a vast pipeline network for desalted sea water.

The articles point out that, although these predictions might seem unbelievable to some, they are no more fantastic than the already-fulfilled "shoot-the-moon" predictions of the 1940's were at that time.

Russia has given the new name of Tselinograd, or Virgin Land City, to a community of 100,000 in the northeastern Kazakh Soviet Socialist Republic. Its previous name, Akmolinsk, meant White Tomb.

Half the inhabitants of the newly independent African kingdom of Burundi embrace the Christian faith.

Texas Small Fry Beat McKeesport

PHARR, Tex. (AP)—A Texas small fry football team defeated McKeesport, Pa., 38-20 Friday night for the Little Tigers' second loss in five appearances in the national Milk Bowl.

It was the first time the Oak Cliff Jaycees Jets from Dallas had played in the Milk Bowl. The 11- to 14-year-old players all weighed under 112 pounds.

McKeesport scored first, but the Texans outplayed the Little Tigers on the ground and in the air for their victory.

Third baseman Felix Torres hit in 15 straight games for the Los Angeles Angels last season. The former mark was 14 straight, set by Steve Bilko in 1961.

Dissemination On A Weighty Subject

During the video taping of Jackie Gleason's weekly shows, usually on the Tuesday or Wednesday night preceding the Saturday night airings, Gleason enjoys himself, self, bantering with the New York studio audience between new tape readings while new sets are being readied.

Recently a friendly lady in the audience asked Jackie if he was now on a diet.

"Oh, sure," he replied. "I've just lost 30 pounds — but that's just an ear lobe for me."

Warning to the subject, Gleason went on: "I have three sets of suits at home, a 270 pound set, a 220 pound set which I'll be wearing very shortly, and a 190 pound set which hangs in my closet — permanently."

Asked whether his golf helps to keep his weight down (?), the generous-waisted Gleason replied affirmatively, but said there was still this problem:

"If I put the ball where I can see it, I can't reach it. And if I put the ball where I can reach it, I can't see it."

Robert Pierpont of the CBS News Washington staff got his first broadcasting experience with the Swedish Broadcasting Corporation in Stockholm.

Garry Moore got his professional name by conducting a contest, in which a Pittsburgh woman was the winner.

THIS IS RICH

John Rich, NBC news correspondent, covered developments in New Delhi, India, on a speech by Prime Minister Nehru in which Nehru said there was "no love lost" between Russia and Communist China.

A correspondent for Tass, a Soviet news agency, asked Rich what Nehru meant by the phrase "no love lost," Rich explained. "Rich said the Tass man then ran for the cable office after commenting, 'This is a big story.'"

When Bing Crosby drove to his Palm Springs hideaway for a few days of relaxation before starting rehearsals for his Christmas Eve show, little did he expect that within 48 hours his place would be swarming with Secret Service men and telephone technicians, preparing for the 38-hour visit of President Kennedy just completed.

As the telephone men were installing 34 trunk lines, Bing decided he'd have more privacy in his Holiday Hills home and he started his car rolling over the desert early Thursday morning.

Tommy Noonan, a regular participant on "Stump the Stars," appears on two other shows on the CBS Network early in the year. He will guest star in February on an episode of "The Real McCoys." Noonan also is a writer, producer and star of a feature film, "Promise Her Anything," which goes into production this month aboard the SS Acapulco.

Ed Sullivan has been cited five times by the armed forces for his work in bond drives and hospital tours.

"Legislators" Outnumber Lawyers In State Assembly

By RICHARD L. GRAVES

HARRISBURG (AP) — Doctors and lawyers—but no Indian chiefs—will grace the capitol halls next Tuesday.

That's the day the 147th session of the Pennsylvania General Assembly convenes. For everybody else it is New Year's Day. The proximity of the morning after New Year's Eve and the banging of the opening gavel at noon is greeted with mixed emotions.

CHAPMAN ABSENT

This will be the first session of the legislature since 1930 that an Indian chief of sorts will be absent from the legislative chambers, Dr. Leroy Chapman, Warren, who retired this year after 32 years in the Senate, was an honorary chieftain of Pennsylvania's own Complanter Indians.

Chapman, a Republican, won his turkey feathers for backing the cause of the Complanters in the legislature, namely an annual $300 appropriation for road maintenance on the Indian acres. The bill generally was approved with a happy warwhoop from the lawmakers.

Chapman dovetailed nicely into the old doctor, lawyer, Indian chief rhyme. He was a physician. He was replaced in the Senate by lawyer Richard C. Frame, also a Republican.

The list of occupations of lawmakers in the 1963 legislature is a catalogue of state job opportunities. Most of the sons list their private occupations separate from their lawmaking functions.

Despite that, the 1963 assembly will score a significant first, at least in the House. For the first time since the Whiskey Rebellion (at least), attorneys are outnumbered by some other occupation. That other job is "legislator."

For the 1963 session 35 House members listed their business or occupation as legislator. The other 175 listed dentist, mortician, or whatever they decided they were. The total self-identified legislators for 1963 compares to only 14 in the previous house listing two years ago.

That gives the legislators a five-member edge over the attorneys.

The upsurge in professional legislators also lends credence to an argument in 1961 over a boost in legislative reimbursement from $6,000 to $9,000 a year. During debate on the pay raise, supporters contended that the higher scale would give the elected official an independence from the workaday world—and presumably sinister influences. The inference two years ago was that a lawmaker could not subsist on the $6,000 a year scale without temptation, unless he had some other occupation.

MILLER IN SENATE

Though House members have indicated they are following the spirit of the pay boost, the Senate still counts the same single self-identified legislator it had before—Sen. John Carl Miller, Beaver County Democrat.

Attorneys are still the dominant profession in the 50-member Senate. There will be 23 in the 1963 chamber, while the House will have 30 in a total membership of 210.

The next biggest job bracket in both chambers is the insurance agent. The House will have 11; the Senate 8.

Both chambers will have the usual batch of miscellaneous occupations—housewives, molders, pharmacists, salesmen, jewelers, and so on.

PERRY MASON TO GET HELP IN COURTROOM

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Perry Mason is finally getting some help in the courtroom.

After five and a half undefeated years, the television barrister is being spelled by substitutes, including a lady lawyer. The cause of this minor surgery which Raymond Burr has successfully undergone.

Maintaining a television schedule during the actor's recuperation was a major operation which befell "Perry Mason's" executive producer, Gail Patrick Jackson.

"Ray has been out of the show before," said the actress-turned-producer. "Once he was gone for seven weeks, and we had to find ways of shooting around him."

"This time the doctors let us know in plenty of time that Ray would be out for eight weeks. So we had time to plan ahead."

Starting Jan. 31, guest stars will be taking over Perry's cases on the CBS show. First will be Bette Davis. Others are Walter Pidgeon, Michael Rennie and Hugh O'Brian.

"Ray will be on each of the four shows," Mrs. Jackson explained. "In the first one, he'll be in bed in the hospital. The next one will show him walking around the hospital room. Then we'll have him at his apartment in a robe. The last one will show him at his apartment in a sport coat."

That should soften the blow to Perry Mason fans, who are among the most dedicated in television. Then loyalty was given the acid test this season when the show moved to Thursday night after five years in the same Saturday night spot.

"It was tough to lose that Saturday night habit," the producer admitted. "But I didn't object. I figured if we were going to stay in business, it was a challenge to do so on a different night."

The results in terms of ratings have not been as lofty as Perry enjoyed on Saturday night. But Mrs. Jackson said the ratings are beginning to climb. She expects the series to survive another season.

URGES EFFORT FOR MORE AID FOR EDUCATION

By FRED WALTERS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania's top school administrators were told today that the state's major educational organizations must make a unified effort for greater financial support of education.

"Such joint action is practically a necessity if we are to achieve the things we feel are needed for education in Pennsylvania," said Dr. O. H. Aurand, Lancaster County school superintendent.

Aurand was chairman of a Joint Action Committee formed by the three major organizations to develop a legislative program for 1963.

WANT HIGHER SALARIES

The committee's recommendations—calling for a multi-million dollar program of higher state subsidies, increased teacher salaries and expanded facilities for higher education—were disclosed Thursday night.

The committee was made up of six representatives each from the Pennsylvania State Education Association, the Pennsylvania School Boards Association and the Pennsylvania Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The proposals were presented today to the chief school administrators section of the PSEA during the second day of the PSEA's 110th annual convention.

NEED COMMON GOALS

Aurand is the new president of the chief school administrators section. Aurand told the group that the biggest reason for failure to achieve greater state support in the past has been the inability of the three organizations to work for common goals.

Specifically, the Joint Action Committee proposed that: —State subsidies be increased to the level of actual costs of instruction.

—Teachers be given increases ranging from $300 to $900 a year. —The state create a community (two-year) college system provide for post-high school technical training and adult retraining.

$270 MILLIONS

The costs could run as high as $270 million a year. The subsidy increase alone is estimated to cost from $100 million to $200 million annually.

The joint action committee was composed of six members each from the Pennsylvania State Education Association, the Pennsylvania State School Directors Association and the Pennsylvania Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The school administrators meeting was one of several scheduled during the second day of the 110th annual PSEA convention.

$30 MILLION FOR PAY

The chief school administrators group is one of several sections within the PSEA, which represents some 70,000 teachers and administrators throughout the state.

In the major activity of opening day Thursday, the PSEA's classroom teachers department held its business session and went on record in opposition to increased standards for teachers until salary increases are forthcoming.

Estimates on the cost of the proposed salary increase range from $30 million to $70 million a year.

They specifically mentioned the requirement that teachers have 24 hours of post-graduate work, effective next school year, before being eligible for a permanent certificate.

ELECTION HELD

An attempt to duplicate last year's action when the teachers voted down an expression of appreciation to Gov. Lawrence for his efforts on behalf of education failed this year.

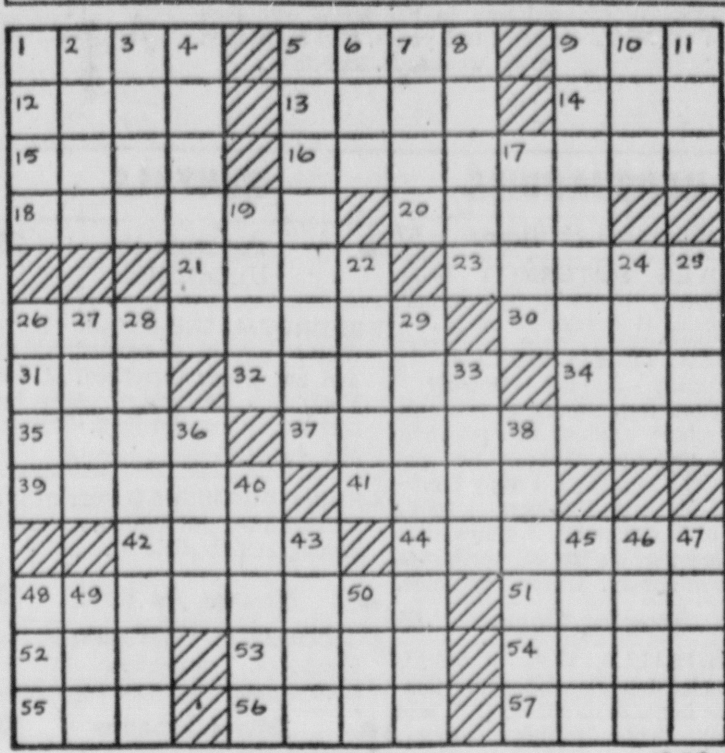

The teachers elected Roy W. Brandau, 42-year-old Garden Spot High School (Lancaster County) teacher, a native of Hazleton, as their president for 1963.

Joseph Seigman, assistant supervising principal for Moon Union (Allegheny County) school district, is unopposed for election as 1963 PSEA president.

The joint action committee report sidestepped the controversial issue of compulsory school reorganization.

It agreed "there is a basic need for a school district reorganization plan," but did not speak of mandating it.

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Cambodia charged Friday that South Vietnamese troops fired on Cambodian villagers in two different places Christmas Eve. Radio Phnom Penh said there were no casualties in either incident.

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP) — Maj. Gen. Joseph E. Gill of the U.S. Air Force rejected Friday Communist charges that an American U2 spied over North Korea on Dec. 6.

Gen. Gill, the senior U.N. delegate, told the Military Armistice Commission the charge had no basis in fact.

The North Korean delegate, Maj. Gen. Chang Chung-Hwan, charged a week ago that a U2 reconnaissance plane flew for about two hours over North Korea in violation of the Korean armistice.

LONDON (AP)—An official report today said one out of every eight babies born in London last year was illegitimate.

Dr. J.A. Scott, the city's health officer, said there were 6,732 illegitimate births out of a total of 60,032. He said London's percentage of illegitimacy was twice the national average.

DUKE DENIES HE SUGGESTED NAZI ALLIANCE

PARIS (AP) — The Duke of Windsor said Friday captured German diplomatic documents gave a generally false impression in suggesting he favored a British alliance with Nazi Germany while he was king.

The captured documents released Thursday quoted the Duke when he reigned as King Edward VIII — as saying he was ready to meet Hitler.

The Duke said the documents—written by a German envoy identified as the Duke of Coburg — were "slanted in order to curry favor with Hitler."

British newspapers divided in their reaction to a revival of the charge that the Duke wanted to make a personal deal with Hitler.

DEFENDS KING

The Daily Express, published by Windsor's old friend Lord Beaverbrook, again defended the former King Edward VIII.

The Laborite Daily Mirror scathingly derided the duke. The liberal Guardian said the new report only showed how stupid the Nazis were.

The perennial argument was revived by publication by the British, American and French governments of captured Nazi documents kept secret since World War II.

The documents showed that a mysterious German envoy—identified by other sources as the German duke of Coburg—reported to Hitler after an interview with Edward VIII.

KING FLARES UP

"A Germany-Britain alliance is for him an urgent necessity and a guiding principle for British foreign policy."

"To my question whether a discussion between Baldwin (Stanley Baldwin, then British prime minister) and Hitler would be desirable for future German-British relations, he replied in the following words:

"Who is king here? Baldwin or I? I myself wish to talk to Hitler and will do so here or in Germany. Tell him that, please."

The duke also reported to the fuhrer that the king had "spoken well" of Rudolf Hess, the Nazi leader who later parachuted into Scotland during World War II.

STUDIES TEXTS

With the publication, old antagonists reformed ranks and debated the dusty questions—did Britain lose a potentially great king when Edward abdicated in 1936 for the love of an American divorcee?

Or would he have been a puppet of Hitler?

The duke at his home in Paris had no immediate comment on the new documents. His secretary said he was studying the texts.

But in the past, when questions about him were raised by published Nazi documents, the duke has denied there was anything improper in his connections.

Von Braun has arrived here to join his parents for a family get-together over the New Year's holiday.

His father, Baron Magnus Von Braun, lives in this upper Bavarian town.
